Manager: Alvaro Lamontagne

Office location: Ocean Avenue & Main Street | Los Angeles, California

Reason for exception: Unable to effectively perform duties without feeling self-conscious of accused behavior. No specific work area assigned with adequate storage facilities for work equipment. Travel between sites can be reduced by strategically planning out troubleshooting work from home.

Proposed request: Be allowed to work from home for all items that don't require a physical presence. My home is located two blocks from Ocean Avenue so any troubleshooting work that involves my presence would be completed in a timely manner.

Please include any other important details: Theft accusations have harmed my character and my ability to effectively do my job. Reducing physical time/interactions with others will effectively eliminate/reduce these sort of encounters.
